Welcome to the April Edition

Well April is a busy month, Easter at the beginning and ANZAC Day towards the end of the month. While I do not intend to put my foot in it, this year we should be able to celebrate ANZAC Day and remember those who sacrificed so much for us. Just remember if you do go to a big public gathering, make sure you follow the current COVID restrictions.

Just a reminder to ensure you are using the new email address for all correspondence:

Major Boost for Emergency Services in Macedon

The State Government has invested $838,928 in emergency services in Macedon to provide essential vehicles and appliances for local volunteers.

Member for Macedon Mary-Anne Thomas today announced that the Elphinstone, Fryerstown, Romsey and Woodend CFAs would all receive funding to help protect their local community.

These projects are amongst 240 grants sharing in more than $14 million in funding under the government's 2020-21 Volunteer Emergency Services Equipment Program (VESEP).

Grant recipients include:

- Elphinstone CFA, who have received $2,261 for a new air conditioner
- Fryerstown CFA, who have received $193,333 for a new light tanker
- Romsey CFA, who have received a $321,667 for a new medium tanker
- Woodend CFA, who have received a $321,667 for a new medium tanker

Under the program, the Victorian Government matches every $1 paid by volunteer groups with a $2 co-contribution up to $150,000 per project. This brings the total investment in this project to $985,891.

The annual grants program gives volunteer emergency service groups the opportunity to apply for grants of up to $150,000 to purchase equipment including vehicles, trucks, tankers, watercraft and trailers, and for minor improvements including refurbishments and amenities, such as kitchens and change rooms. ## April In Your Garden - Melanie Kinsey

I know its autumn when the autumn crocus Colchicum species appear. They may be tiny but their unique shade of the mauve really catches your eye. I also know its autumn when the berries on my variegated porcelain vine Ampelopsis brevipedunculata 'Elegans' begin to turn from emerald to turquoise, sapphire and amethyst. They are so exquisite, last for ages and the birds leave them well alone! Lastly the ox-tongue lily Haemanthus coccineus has poked its orange tongues through the soil opening up to intriguing shaving brush type flowers. The bulbs react to the first autumn rain with their flowers which will then be followed by their long wide leaves.

I was lucky to receive a gift of some well-loved old cacti in a range of pots last weekend. I spent a lovely afternoon repotting them into slightly bigger pots and hopefully they'll settle into their new abodes before winter. Following advice from Gardening Australia I tackled my rhubarb growing in large self-watering pots and divided them up. I now have just one plant per pot to give them lots of room. I added a lot of cow manure to each pot – mixed in well with the potting mix, blood 'n' bone and pelletised chook poo. They should eventually rocket away – fingers crossed! Rhubarb pie for winter!

I have also been taking lots of cuttings – its time to prune your geraniums so what better time than to take lots of cuttings! I have also taken cuttings from a rosemary bush with particularly blue flowers, some daisies, my lemon scented correa and the grey leaved old-fashioned dusty miller Centaurea cinerea. The grey leaves are a great foil against the shades of green and occasional burgundy in the shrub bed.

Romsey Mechanics Institute

The CoM was pleasantly surprised when we were contacted by DELWP offering to assist us to pay for the recent damage caused by the break-in to the Billiards Room. Our thanks to Paul Pinder for his excellent work replacing the external door. We now have a much more solid door in place. The small window in the kitchen will need specialised work. It should be replaced in the next few weeks

The Romsey CWA held their district AGM at the RMI in mid February. The meeting was a great success and it the first trial run of the new projector and screen. All went very well

The Romsey Police recently held a public forum at the RMI. The intention was to address a number of local issues and to gather information from the community as to what they felt was happening and how these problems might be best addressed. A good crowd attended and were able to air their concerns. Sgt Eddie Barrak was very pleased to receive feedback, some good, some not so good, from the community.

The CWA District AGM

Our Antiques and Collectables Fair was held on Saturday March 20th. All stalls were taken and there was a steady flow of people through the front door and out the supper room door. Our thanks to the Romsey CWA for their wonderful morning and afternoon teas. They received many very positive comments throughout the day. Thanks also to Di, Gail and Kathy for all their hard work to organise the day

It is pleasing to see so many of our old "Regular Users" returning to the RMI and beginning their sessions. We have picked up a few new "Regulars" so keep an eye out for the new offerings at the RMI.

RRBATA Update

Here comes the Autumn Festival 2021.... AND the "Romsey Progressive Dinner - Poetry in Motion"

An initiative of the Macedon Ranges Shire Council's Visitor Economy Strategy, this festival will engage the many thousands of visitors that head to the Macedon Ranges—especially Macedon and Mt Macedon in Autumn—and get them involved in activities throughout the Shire.

A feature event in the Autumn Festival's calendar will be the inaugural "Romsey Progressive Dinner - Poetry in Motion" to be held on Saturday 24th April 2021 presented by RRBATA, it will engage three Romsey restaurants (Soltan Pepper, Evan's Wine Bar and Bistro, Verdure) in a "progressive dinner" format. Three groups (of 50 guests in each) will rotate between the restaurants. Between each course, local makers will be showcased at transition sites ("Creative Zones"). As an ode to Vincent Buckley (1925-1988), the well-known poet who grew up in Romsey, there will be an entertaining poetry theme at each restaurant. Vibrant volunteers will look after each group of diners and street buskers will add energy to the vibe. This will be a fun evening which will showcase our wonderful Macedon Ranges businesses, hospitality and produce. This will be a forerunner to possible expansion next year into a larger poetry festival and dinner event.

More information available on Facebook (Romsey Lancefield Business and Living) and www.rrbata.com.au. Tickets at TRY Booking.

Economic Development Strategy 2021-2031

Council is currently undertaking the draft of the new Economic Development Strategy 2021-2031. Whilst this may seem "dry" to many, documents such as this form the roadmaps that Council will be committed to follow. The document's implications extend from business prosperity to education and training to transport to, more generally, the wellbeing of our community. RRBATA has had active involvement in this and other strategy documents over the years and urges all community members to "have a say" when similar consultation opportunities arise. It really can make a difference!

Another Dinner.... Save the Date!

RRBATA had its plans for last year's Business and Community Dinner scuttled by COVID-19 but is pleased to announce it has been reconvened to Thursday 27th May 2021 to be held at Glen Erin. Stay tuned for more information and booking details via Facebook (Romsey and Lancefield Business and Living) and www.rrbata.org.au.

Romsey & Lancefield Districts Historical Society

Sunday April 18th - Come and enjoy a Devonshire Tea in the gardens of the historic Seymour Cottage (c1856) – 20 Palmer Street Romsey.

The Romsey & Lancefield Districts Historical Society are excited to announce that on Sunday 18 April, as part of the Macedon Ranges Autumn Festival 2021, Sidney Seymour Cottage gardens will be open to the public!

The Cottage property was closed to the public in 2017 because of structural concerns inside resulting from the extent of termite damage. While the Cottage will remain closed, the gardens are re-opening. A gold coin entry to the property will be applicable. Come and enjoy a Devonshire Tea in Sidney Seymour's glorious autumn garden. Scones, jam and cream are only the beginning....

If you feel concerned about the restoration of Romsey's oldest cottage (c1856), you are encouraged to come along to either or both garden working bees to prepare for the re-opening of the Sidney Seymour Cottage garden.

Volunteers are invited to contribute two hours of gardening time on Saturday 10th of April &/or Sunday 11th April to help prepare the garden for our Sunday 18 April event.

Please phone the Cottage Coordinator John Spring 0409 861 876 to volunteer a small amount of your time! We hope to see you for this important event.

Murphy Street Footpath

A number of years ago locals were surprised to see a footpath in Wrixon Street on the Shire's agenda. Sadly, that footpath was about 20m long and ran from below the walkway up to Romsey Heights to the corner with Murphy Street. Certainly not what most people were expecting. Both sides of Murphy Street remained rough with numerous tripping points, narrow cross-over at Pohlman Street and steep drops down to Telstra and other service pits.

So, life continued on as per usual with most people, especially young families with prams, being forced to walk down the middle of the street. In September of 2019 Hazel Allen felt that "enough was enough" and something had to be done about the footpath before there was a serious accident. With the help of other Wrixon Streeters she composed a letter to the MRSC asking consideration be given to a footpath in Murphy Street between Wrixon Street and Pohlman Street.

The letter outlined her concerns about the dangers inherent in the existing "footpath" and the rising chance of an accident from increased traffic and the number of people who felt forced to walk on the street. Numerous vehicles were avoiding the new round-about and driving via Wrixon and Murphy Streets and there was increased heavy vehicle traffic from both New Earth Constructions and the Supermarket. A properly constructed footpath was much needed. Hazel even sat at the corner of Murphy and Wrixon Streets collecting signatures for a petition in favour of the new footpath. Over 200 people signed, and this was included with the letter. Unfortunately, this first letter did not get the desired response.

Very happy locals admire the new footpath

Not to be deterred Hazel had another go.

In November of 2019 a second letter was prepared. It contained photographs of the trouble spots, detailed measurements of the width of the crossover and the depth of the drop to service pits and to Pohlman Street. In mid 2020 Shirley was notified by MRSC that the footpath between Wrixon St and Pohlman St, scheduled to be done in a few years' time, would be "fast tracked" and completed in early 2021.

The Mount Players Finally Re-Open the Curtains

It is with much pride and excitement that I put pen to paper (or fingers to keyboard) this month.

Our theatre finally welcomed in its first group for a play reading in February, and to see people sitting in our auditorium after so long was very moving indeed.

We are now in rehearsal for our first show, Too Many Crooks, opening on 14th May. Step back in time and be part of the audience at a BBC radio play, with live sound effects and 6 actors taking on numerous roles to tell the hilarious story of a bunch of crooks who just can't get it right!

Adapted from the 1959 British comedy movie starring among others, Terry Thomas, Sydney James & George Cole. Director, John Rowlands has adapted the script for the stage and promises lots of laughs.

We will have a limited seating capacity due to Covid restrictions so get in early to secure yourself a seat.

For full details on the show and to book tickets we invite you to our website www.themountplayers.com You can also check out our What's On section for our monthly play readings where everyone is welcome.

Want to Improve the Health of Your Horse and Your Land?

Macedon Ranges Shire Council and Melbourne Water are partnering to offer a $100 discount for horse owners to participate in an online equiculture course.

Equiculture – short for equine permaculture – is a holistic horse property management program that promotes sustainable farm and pasture management techniques designed with your horse's welfare and natural behaviour in mind.

The equiculture program is delivered digitally, with participants able to learn at their own pace. Fifteen modules teach participants all about healthy soil and pasture, managing weeds, mud and erosion, property design and layouts as well as managing optimal equine health.

"Riding horses recreationally or as part of farming practices is very common in the Macedon ranges, and we know how important caring for the health of horses is for riders," said Angela Hughes, Director Environment and Planning.

"Rural landholders have regularly told us they want more opportunities to learn about land management and Council is pleased to support that through the equiculture program. Places in this discounted course are limited so contact us to secure your spot."

Completion of the Equiculture course can also be incorporated into the Pony Club Australia K or C* certificates.

To get your discount code, contact Jason McAinch on 0455 210 436 or visit mrsc.vic.gov.au/sustainable-farming

Places are limited so get in quick!

'Cool Changes' Romsey and Lancefield

Share your vision for a more sustainable Romsey and Lancefield region. 'Cool Changes' is Council's program for facilitating the development of local climate change action plans. This community led approach allows for plans to be developed by local communities, for them to own and implement into the future.

Keep an eye out for listening posts at Lancefield Farmer's Market on 27 March and outside Romsey IGA on 17 April. You can also find out more or contribute your ideas via an online project hub mrsc.vic.gov.au/cool-changes

Learn more about how a local climate change action plan will be developed with the community over the next few months, and start sharing your ideas for creating a more sustainable future.

Anyone who has a connection to Romsey and Lancefield is encouraged to be part of the project, and help ensure it is as inclusive and community-driven as possible.

Cooking with Peter Russell-Clarke RATATOUILLE

RATATOUILLE - pronounced RAT-TAT-TWO-EE - a French idea of how to overcook vegetables into a soft, sloppy mass - so I decided to cook MY version of that Vegetable Stew. But, before I explain how I served my version to Jan, here's how the French explain their version.

'A delicious stew from Provence, in France. It is a mixture of aubergine (egg-plant), sweet peppers, tomatoes and courgettes (zucchini), all diced, fried in just enough olive oil to cover the bottom of the pan, and gently stewed until they form a rich soft mass. The dish is liberally flavoured with garlic, salt and pepper.'

Here's my version:

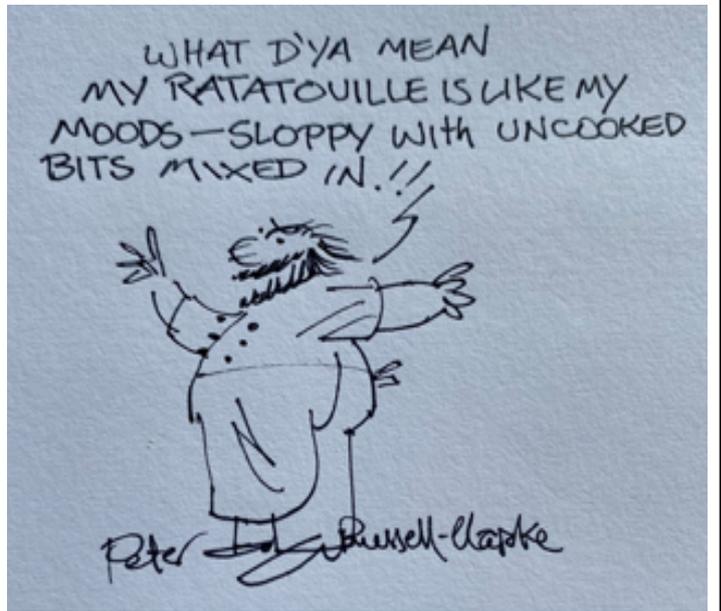

First, I sliced half a small aubergine into medallions which I cooked to softness in my daily soup.

In a pan wet with olive oil I fried half a brown onion, sliced, with 2 cloves of garlic also sliced. When they softened, I included florets of broccoli and cauliflower and 2 ripe red tomatoes which I'd quartered. (The tomatoes cooked to a slush, the broccoli and cauliflower softened but retained their shape.). I sprinkled a small handful of sunflower seeds into the mixture and added a grated knob of raw ginger and a small amount of grated carrot with a splash of light soy sauce and a small dash of tomato sauce.

When this warmed I added a few shakes of oil then some finely chopped raw carrot (so it would remain crunchy) and a good handful of chopped baby spinach leaves.

Once the warm mixture (the aubergine softened and diced were added) was served beside some buttered seeded toast, I spooned a little honey over the lot (except the toast) and waited for a reaction from Jan ... she's still with me.

Deep Creek Landcare Group

Covering Lancefield, Romsey and Monageeta Districts

I am feeling calm, I am feeling good! I feel as if I can cope with the complexities and pace of the modern world and the constant barrage of bad news from here and around the globe. No, I am not high on illicit substances or endorphins after a long run. I have put my "happy hat" on – I have been "nature bathing".

No we're not talking about taking a bath outdoors. Nature or forest bathing is spending time in nature and really taking in the sights, smells, sounds and sensations around you. It could be bird watching in a rainforest, feeling the sand between your toes at the beach or just sitting in a park.

Nature Bathing was the subject of a chat last November between VicHealth CEO Dr Sandro Demaio and Raf Epstein on ABC Radio Melbourne about the benefits of making time to go outside and be in nature.

"There's a Japanese tradition called shirin-yoku [forest bathing], which is actually a form of eco-therapy, it's a whole area of science," Sandro said.

"Many of us know that it's healthy to be out in nature, that we come back feeling relaxed, we get a bit of sunshine and vitamin D. Certainly this year more than ever it's been critical to spend time outside."

Sandro said spending time outdoors in green spaces such as parks or reserves has a significant bearing on the lowering of stress in our body.

"Time outside decreases our stress levels; it decreases our cortisol levels. It's shown to increase your memory, your mood and even your immune function – likely all through the mediator of stress," he explained

"Stress hormones affect every part of our body and our brain, our sleep, our mood, our blood pressure and our risk of illnesses like heart disease and diabetes. So, if you can do things to reduce your stress it has really positive impacts on almost every aspect of your body and your health."

Although science can account for the physical and some of the mental benefits we get from being immersed in nature, does it explain all of them? Sandro doesn't believe so.

"A lot of it is physiology, it is how that environment affects your body and as I said a lot of it is mediated through stress," Sandro said.

"[But] there are certainly some intangibles and science can't explain all of the benefits you get from being in nature. Part of it is the magic of just being in green space, being outside, breathing fresh air in your lungs and having sun on your skin."

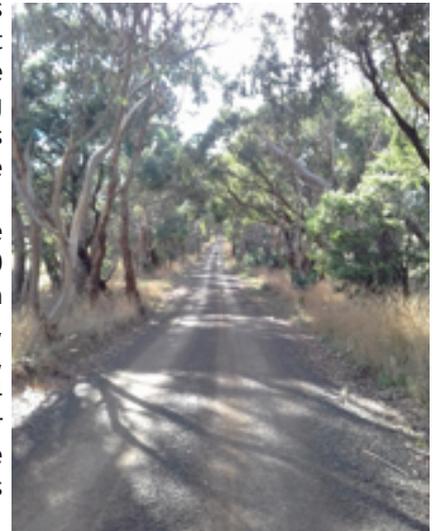

"There was a big study done last year with 20,000 people which showed definitively that your mental and physical health benefit enormously from 2 hours per week of being in nature."

I could invoke Lara Bingle here but I will settle with "what are you waiting for?" As Macedon Ranges' residents we are lucky to have such clean air, an abundance of flora and fauna, open spaces, relatively quiet roads and a host of leisure activities".

We do not have to go very far to indulge in a spot of nature bathing and feel the benefits! We could just go out into the backyard, turn off the phone and tune into nature or we could go for a trip and reconnect with different environments.

During January and February 87 Indian Myna birds were trapped. We have traps available to borrow but if it is laughs you are after we have nesting boxes for Kookaburras available for the discount price of $25.

Annual Landcare membership is $20 per family. You can follow us on Facebook, contact our President, Phil Severs (0476 324 000) or attend our monthly meetings in the Lancefield Mechanics Hall.

REMINDER: VICTORIANS ASKED TO EXPLAIN WHY THEY DIDN'T VOTE

The Victorian Electoral Commission (VEC) is urging Victorians who were sent an Apparent Failure to Vote Notice to respond by the 28-day deadline with a detailed explanation.

The notice - which is a not a fine - asks apparent non-voters for a reason for why they appear not to have voted in the 2020 local council elections.

A detailed response with supporting documentation, where possible, will help to determine if the excuse is considered sufficient, while ignoring the notice, or not providing a sufficient reason for not voting, may result in an infringement notice and a penalty of $83.

Electoral Commissioner, Warwick Gately, said that recipients should contact the VEC for assistance if unsure what to do, rather than ignore the notice.

'If you need help understanding what the notice means and what you need to do, you can call us on 1300 551 575 or visit our website at vec.vic.gov.au [3]. We are seeking from you a reason why you appear not to have voted,' Mr Gately said.

'I also encourage you to sign up to our VoterAlert service, to make sure you're notified whenever there's a State or local council election happening.'

People can sign up at vec.vic.gov.au/voteralert [4] to receive important reminders about upcoming State and local council elections.

PASTOR'S PARABLES

An Easter revelation: The Servant King

Can God be both God and man – King and servant?

Have you ever considered that a 'good' king is a servant to his people? He holds his power and position for the betterment of his subjects. He is not above the laws he makes; he is subject to them. He always has his nation's best interests at heart and is willing to lay down his life for his people.

Jesus Christ is known as the Lord of Lords and King of Kings. As God, Jesus is Sovereign over all His creation, yet still He serves mankind daily with oxygen, gravity and sunshine.

As man, Jesus is subject to all the laws that God has decreed (the many commandments). He is also subject to all the laws of perfection. He must always be righteous, fair, truthful and sinless. Hebrews 4:15 states: For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weakness, but in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin.

Furthermore, as with any good king, Christ has shown He is willing to lay down His life for the safety and best interests of His people.

John 10:11 states: "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for the sheep." Christ went willingly to the cross to pay the penalty of sin, so all who believe in Him may have eternal life. John 3:16.

Our Creator, so in love with His Creation, and so that He could continue to have relationship with those He Created, laid down His Life because we messed up and as a result separated ourselves from Him.

Now through not only His death, but His Resurrection, we are restored back into that place where we can have intimate relationship with Him, as was His purpose in Creating us in the beginning.

May you ponder this amazing truth this Easter.

Need help in understanding?? It would be our pleasure to help you find these precious truths in the Bible (that never changes) and see you become all that you can be in life and in God.

Easter Blessings, from Pastor Marilyn Hunter and all @ Encourage Church.

Prayer for the Day

Today, God, the world is turning, there is beauty around us, we have people who love us, and people to love.

There may be troubles and worries.

There are issues to face, and problems to solve.

Nothing will magically take these away, but we have the choice to see good, to savour what is right, to appreciate what is lovely, to honour the efforts of others, and to be grateful for the small things.

These help us in our coping, they lighten our spirits, and bring some balance to our thinking. May we look beyond our present trials, and see hope and support, at least the kind that we might share with others.

Love us through our hardships.

Lift our spirits when they fall.

Be with us and bless as we pray.

Amen.

Philippians 4:6-7 Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God, and the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

2021 Summer Cup (Dedicated to the memory of Dean Jones): The final round of the 2021 Summer Cup was held over because of the mid-February lockdown and was finally played on Sat March 6th. 1st place was virtually sewn up (Davey Kenney – 28.5pts) but there were five players who could take out 2nd and 3rd. Conditions were almost perfect for golf and a number of players returned excellent scores. In the end it was 87/8/69 from RGC Captain that secured 2nd place (22 pts). Andrew Clement also played well returning 80/8/72 to take out 3rd spot (17 pts)

Mal Mottram, Davey Kenney, Andrew Clement & RGC Pres Anthony Lakey

Twilight Golf: Our very popular Twilight Golf usually finishes at the end of February but, this year, by popular demand, we have extended until the 26th of March. The final round of the "Titan of Twilight" saw 1st (Keith Hocking – 40pts) & 2nd (Sherif Abdel-Sayed - 28 pts) well and truly secured So, it was a fight out for 3rd. It came down to a five-way countback with Jim Patton winning on the 4th individual hole countback. This gave Jim 16pts just enough to grab to grab 3rd spot, also on a countback.

Men's and women's pennant will begin in the final weeks of March. RGC has entered a men's handicap team in Division Three, our women will also enter a handicap team in Division two south.

The 28th Romsey Challenge Bowl will be held at RGC on Thursday April 8th. This is a team stableford events and draws teams from all over Dalhousie and surrounding areas.

We would like to thank the local police for their efforts to sort out a few problems we have been having down at Romsey Park. A few unsavoury individuals have been moved on and a few others are now well aware that their behaviour and actions are being watched.

RESPECTFUL RELATIONSHIPS AND WELLBEING

'Every individual has a personal narrative, a story of experiences that colours what they question, the answers they seek, the possibilities they see, and the ways they come to know truth'.

Catholic Education Melbourne 2016, Horizons of Hope

At St Mary's, as part of our weekly timetable, we have taken on the Respectful Relationship education program also known as 'The Resilience, Rights and Respectful Relationships professional learning program.' The program includes:

- classroom videos of teachers delivering the Resilience, Rights and Respectful Relationships with their students.
- activities to encourage teachers to reflect how they model social and emotional skills to students' academic podcasts
- whole school approach to delivering a core component of the Victorian curriculum
- Victorian Curriculum F-10 about respectful relationships in both health and physical education and personal and social capability. In the Health and Physical Education curriculum, students develop the knowledge, understanding and skills to strengthen their sense of self, and build and manage safe and respectful relationships. In the Personal and Social Capability curriculum, students learn to recognise and regulate emotions, develop empathy for others and establish and build a framework for positive relationships.

In partnership with our implementation of the curriculum in our weekly timetable, we connect this with developing relationships outside the classroom and are putting in place different activities for students to interact and be resilient, and respectful to each other.

One inquisitive that we have implemented this term is our outdoor break activities. To complement the in-class program, we have provided games and activities in the yard where students who may not be attracted to the physical side activities can come and enjoy a game, read a story or build Lego.

Our team at St Mary's are continually working together to improve and cater for all children both academically and socially and our activities have proven to be a BIG hit.
