5th June - Senior Citizens trip to Crown Casino.

21st June - Trivia Night at Romsey Library, 7pm.

Meet the Romsey Rag Committee of Management - Karen Read

Karen Read has resided in Romsey since 1993, moving here after growing up in Yarraville. Karen wanted to raise her family away from the "rat race" and in the fresh air.

When she moved here with her husband Paul, they were pregnant with their first child. Once Dean was born, Karen became more involved in the community.

Karen was president of the playgroup for two years, was enrolment officer at the Romsey kinder for a year. Helped out at Romsey Primary School as much as work would permit, attending numerous school camps as a helper. Karen started Karate around 2006 with her son Dean and made it to brown belt.

Karen is a cancer survivor and fundraises continually for the Cancer Council.

She has participated in "Run Melbourne" for the past three years as well as the Relay for Life this year at Werribee.

Karen currently volunteers for the Romsey Rag in the capacity of treasurer and has held this role since 2018.

Romsey Mechanics Institute

The plans for the replacement for the old lean-to storage room on the south side of the hall are now with the MRSC Planning Department. Once a planning permit has been obtained we will apply for a building permit and, if successful, works will begin to demolish the old room and replace it with a larger, weather-proof structure. This larger room will allow us to store the display boards as well as some chairs that can be quickly put out for smaller functions. The bulk of the RMI's chairs are stored up on the balcony.

During May our regular user, Cowboys & Angels Dance Academy, headed up to Tamworth to compete for the Mayworth Trophy at the Australian Country Dance Festival. Well, what can you say? They were again very successful taking out the trophy and many individual and group awards. Their success is a credit to teachers Kate and Stacey and the 22 dancers who performed in the competition. We hope to gain funds from DELWP to rebuild the small stairs and landing into the kitchen and to seal off the roof vents. During windy and wet times water blows under the existing caps and ends up on the floor of the hall making a safety hazard. In coming months we will also be sanding back and painting the doors and other sections at the front of the stage. We will also fit new handles and locking mechanisms.

In recent months the RSL has been able to take advantage in the Senior Citizens' rooms to hold monthly dinners. A great example of two community groups working together. The RMI CoM has installed five-minute lights that illuminate the rear of the RMI so people can get to their cars safely.

The RMI has ten eight-seat tables that we no longer use. These are quite solid articles with fold-up legs and would be ideal for undercover use. The tables are 240cm by 75cm. If you would like one of these tables, please contact us on 0458 726 106.

Vale Laurie "Chooka" Thomson

Laurie Thomson passed away on Sunday May 5th, a much-admired community member who was loved for his gentleness, humour, common sense and community involvement. Laurie moved into the Romsey area in 1931. He attended Romsey P. S., and often butted heads with Headmaster Mr Murray. The Headmaster had a large strap which disappeared suddenly and was not found again until the renovations at the old school. Laurie then owned up to one day in Gr 6 deciding "Enough is Enough!" and he found a good spot for it behind one of the blackboards.

Laurie was too young for WW2 but his elder brother Charlie served, losing his life in New Guinea. Not long after Laurie also lost his mother. In the early 2000's Laurie, with children Bev and Steven and nephew Robert, was able to visit his brother's grave at the Bomara Commonwealth War Cemetery, a very moving and meaningful trip for all.

Laurie met Jan Keleher in Springfield and the two married in 1952. They were together for the next 62 years and had four children, Beverly, Steven, Kathy & Roz

Laurie & Jan's Wedding

Laurie was a keen sportsman representing the town in football, golf, tennis and bowls. He played over 250 games for Romsey Football Club winning one premiership. He was also a determined and competitive pennant golfer who often left his more fancied opposition scratching their heads wondering how he managed to scramble the win. Laurie was a member of three winning pennant teams, two flags in 1978 (Inner Western & Dalhousie Districts) and again in 1981. In intraclub competition Laurie teamed with a number of partners to win the W. E. Tom 4BBB knockout in 1968, 76, 77, 85, 86 & 87. The shield for best junior net performance in the club championships is named after Laurie.

Laurie spent many years farming close to Monegetta and also in Trentham. One of his favourite stories was of the annual droving of sheep from Romsey across to Trentham, try that now! With his father Stephen he farmed largely sheep and potatoes. He even "developed" a special breed, "Laurie's Spuds" which were highly sought after by family and friends.

He was also heavily involved in the community as a vestry member and church warden at St Paul's Anglican Church. He was on the reading list right up to his passing. Perhaps the most important element of his life was his family. Every family member spoke of how special he made them feel and the great support and life lessons he was able to give.

Laurie always seemed to know everyone's name and what was going on in the town, he had a positive opinion on most things. He will be remembered as an honest, reliable, kindly and gentle man. One who lived his life according to his beliefs, who was a good example to others and who was always around to help if and when needed.

Anthony Lakey.

Guilty or not guilty? The answer to this is known by over a thousand people who were lucky enough to have seen Twelve Angry Men during May. The verdict was of course..... an incredibly successful season for this iconic play. Students and teachers from the Gisborne Secondary College were invited to attend the final dress rehearsal as part of their Year 9 English curriculum and found it a wonderfully rewarding way to learn about the script. Congratulations to cast and crew for staging such a classy, superbly acted play. We wish them luck with this year's Victorian Drama League Awards. 12 Angry Men is The Mount Players entry for 2019.

So, what's next at the Mountview Theatre? Our 16th annual One Act Play Festival will run over the weekend of 12/13 & 14 July. An assortment of short plays from visiting theatres will be staged across the weekend, winding up on Sunday afternoon with awards presented by a guest adjudicator. Come for a session or make a weekend of it. Full details can be viewed on our website www.themountplayers.com tickets only available at the venue.

Our musical this year, Rock of Ages, is now in rehearsal and will open on August 9th. More about that next month. See you at the theatre.

Hallowed Ground Shines a Light on Women's Experience of War

The experiences of women in war are brought to life in a new theatre work showing at Kyneton Town Hall in June.

Hallowed Ground: Women Doctors in War paints a portrait of what life was like for women who served with the armed forces during conflicts including WWI, WWII and those recently serving with our military in the Middle East.

Presented by Shift Theatre, the work is inspired by personal diaries, historical documents and face-to-face interviews. It also draws upon the real-life stories of Professor Susan Neuhaus, who served as a surgeon in Afghanistan and elsewhere with the Australian Army and chronicled her experiences in her book, Not for Glory: A Century of Service by Medical Women to the Australian Army and its Allies.

Don't miss this moving tribute to the wise and remarkable women of war.

Hallowed Ground: Women Doctors in War is on being performing on Thursday 20 June at 7.30pm at Kyneton Town Hall.

Tickets are $42 adults, $38 seniors, $35 concession and $10 student/child.

To find out more or to book tickets, visit mrsc.vic.gov.au/buytickets or call 1300 888 802.

This month's item reviews are from Laura Mitchell, Library Services Officer at Romsey Library:

The documentary "I Used To Be Normal" traces the stories of four devoted boyband fans from three generations. Each woman tells the story of their obsession with their chosen band (The Beatles, Take That, Backstreet Boys and One Direction) from its teenage-crush beginning to the place it holds in their lives today. Though it may seem at first glance a frivolous pursuit, the framework of a boyband fandom offers an illuminating and sensitive insight into the lives of young women over the years. Certain patterns emerge, and it's clear that the boybands provide each woman with a strong sense of personal identity and an opportunity to exorcise the demons of teenage life that will be familiar to all of us. It makes for a very sweet and uplifting film. "I Used To Be Normal" is available on Kanopy, a free film streaming service that can be accessed in the eLibrary section of the library's website at www.ncgrl.vic.gov.au

"Finding Vivian Maier" is a documentary about photographer Vivian Maier, whose photos emerged from the sale of the contents of a storage unit in 2007. The unit contained over 150 000 negatives taken by a heretofore unknown photographer, and it quickly became apparent that a major talent had been unearthed – even as an amateur it's clear that Maier's street photos from New York in the 1950s are beautiful and unsettling work. The film follows the story of the photos' discovery and subsequent popularity. It then goes on to delve into the life story of Maier, an intensely private, odd, and deeply complex person who spent forty years working as nanny and rarely if ever showed anyone her art. It's a fascinating and at times troubling story. "Finding Vivian Maier" is available on Kanopy, a free film streaming service that can be accessed in the eLibrary section of the library's website at www.ncgrl.vic.gov.au

UPDATE

Before there was Romsey Ecotherapy Park.....Reverend Tom, Laurie and Keith Remember.

Reverend Tom Morgan, Laurie Thomson and Keith Carroll were students at the former Romsey State (Primary) School (now Ecotherapy Park site) in the 1930s. Late last year, they re-visited the site and recalled fond memories of their early school days. The Park includes the pony paddock area of the former school yard where Laurie would leave his pony after riding the 6kms journey to school each morning.

Reverend Tom recalled his mother making the bunny outfit worn in the photo (c 1933) at left with his class mates taken on site.

All three gentlemen were impressed with the site's restoration and exciting future ahead.

Driving from Melbourne to Townsville in mid October, local Romsey resident Peter Brown's endeavours will raise money for the Cancer Council, whilst participating in an event that brings tourism and generates revenue to small isolated communities that are part of the rallies course, supporting many grassroots organisations along the way.

250 teams taking on the Australian outback in cars worth $1000 or less hence 'the shitbox rally'. The Rally is a mammoth week-long charity event travelling through remote parts of Australia on some of the toughest roads.

It is now biggest fundraiser for the Cancer Council and has gone on to raise over $16 Million

The Mongrel
by Grahame Watt

'Who owns the mong in the corner?'
The bloke at the bar loudly said,
'He's breathing his last breath, I reckon,
That poor blessed dog looks near dead!
And dogs aren't allowed, where I come from,
To frequent hotels in town.
Who owns this excuse for a canine?
He'd be much better off if put down!'

A silence hung there for a minute,
Then a whiskery old drover spoke up.
'That's my dog, young feller, he's my dog,
I've had him since he was a pup.
You're right, he's old and decrepit,
Like me he has not long to go.
But that mong as you call him's my best friend,
And no better mate could you know.

For me and that dog have enjoyed life.
We both talked a language the same.
We shared the hot days and water-bag thirst
As we worked at the mustering game.
And that dog saved my life in the outback
When thrown from my horse, far away,
That dog ran for help and led the men back,
I owe him my life you could say.'

'I reared him on scraps from my feed bag,
I taught him to fetch and to heel.
I'd say you're a stranger to these parts
Or you'd know just the way that I feel.
Yes he's old, and it's cruel now to see him,

No dog should have earned such a fate.
Last Friday I picked up my rifle,
But how could I shoot my best mate?'

'I even asked that young vet bloke
How much to give my dog rest?'
Fifty dollars,' he said, is the fee for the job.'
But with money I've never been blessed.'
The stranger grew quiet at the story,
He glanced at the bar drinking crew
He said, 'Sorry, old timer, I spoke out of turn,
I can see what that dog means to you.

'Here's fifty dollars to have him put down,
And you'll have to excuse me I fear,
I know it's hard to lose a good friend,
One so close, and so near.'
The stranger shook hands with the drover
And quickly departed the room.
A silence hung over the drinkers,
A sort of a sadness and gloom.

But then the old drover said, 'Spark up!'
'Things aren't that bad, for you see,
That city bloke left fifty dollars
So now all the drinks are on me!
Drink up you blokes, name your poison,
And drink to the mong – he's a swell!
If his owner were here, well, I'd kiss him,
And shout him a few beers as well!'

Local Events Receive Community Bank® Boost

The Community Bank® branches in Lancefield and Romsey were established to ensure there would always be banking services in our local towns.

But Community Bank® branches don't only provide banking products and services, they return their profits back to the local community in which they operate.

In the last 18 years, the Lancefield and Romsey branches have invested over $1.5 million in our towns. As well as returning dividends to the local shareholders.

Our most recent funding program – the 2019 Event Sponsorship Program – is no exception. We will be investing $20,000 to support 17 community groups with local events over the next six months, including:

- Junior Golf Clinic with Lancefield and St Mary's Primary Schools, hosted by Lancefield Golf Club
- Romsey Blue Light Discos
- Colour Run at Lancefield Park, organised by the Lancefield Junior Football Netball Club
- Romsey Primary School Comedy Night
- Community Walk at Woodend Children's Park, organised by the Macedon Ranges Suicide Prevention Action Group
- Romsey Golf Club's Inaugural Women's Open Tournament
- Open Day for the Lancefield Romsey Little Athletics Centre
- 2019 Landcare Photoprize, coordinated by the Nulla Vale Pyalong West Landcare Group

- 2019 Christmas in Romsey Festival, coordinated by RRBATA
- Romsey Bowling Club's Barefoot Bowls

Suzie Ewart is Chair of the Company that operates the Lancefield and Romsey Community Bank® branches and is keen to emphasise our significant contribution to the prosperity of Lancefield, Romsey and the surrounding areas. "In addition to being the only physical bank branches providing banking products and services to our local community, these investment programs are an added benefit that sets our Community Bank® branches apart," she said. "This latest funding allocation illustrates that local residents and businesses who bank with us are helping make a direct contribution to funding worthwhile initiatives in the community."

Jenny Stillman, President of RRBATA, is thrilled with the ongoing support from the local Romsey Community Bank®. "This is the fourth year of the Christmas in Romsey Festival – an initiative to enhance community spirit, connectivity and engagement; and to foster business and community interaction," she said. "The Romsey Community Bank® has supported the Festival from the outset. RRBATA is very pleased the Bank has come on board again as a major sponsor whilst sharing RRBATA's vision of increased visitation to the town and the subsequent economic benefits for the Macedon Ranges eastern corridor."

The next Community Investment Program (grants and sponsorships) opens on 17 June 2019. If you're a member of a local community group or sporting club and are interested in applying for funding, contact Sally Peeler at marketing@lancefieldromseybank.com.au

Entertaining Pets in Winter

Let's face it. It can be hard enough to motivate ourselves to go outside during winter, but it can be even more difficult encouraging your pets that dislike the cold to go outside too. Chilly weather or not, our pets do need their exercise!

By being creative with your pet's entertainment during the cold of winter, you will be more likely to avoid unwanted behaviours as a result of boredom. There are many things you can do to encourage your pet to come outside with you for exercise, and here are just a few tips:

- Use winter coats to keep them warm and ensure the coat is well fitted. You might want to consider a fleece lining to keep them extra toasty!
- Use pet waterproof gear for wet days.
- Increase food intake, this may be necessary as staying warm during winter takes more energy. Make sure you are careful to not over feed however!

If you have tried everything and your pet is still reluctant to venture outside (or you are experiencing extreme weather), a great way to keep your pet stimulated is to engage them in extra activities indoors:

- Consider some trick training for mental stimulation. This could be behavioural training or why not try training your pet to do some household chores e.g. fetch slippers etc.

- Play games like 'find your favourite toy' or 'find a family member' around the house.
- Use enrichment toys such as tug-o-war ropes for physical exertion or use food dispensing toys to develop fun foraging instincts.
- Another option for dogs is socialising at doggy daycare or maybe you could plan a doggy play date.

Whatever your techniques are to keep your pet active during winter, do make sure they have good access to shelter and water at all times!

Cooking with Peter Russell-Clarke

'Carrots'

Carrots;
Butter;
Olive oil;
Garlic;
Freshly ground black pepper;
Honey;
Baby spinach leaves;
Grated Parmesan cheese;
Grated Cheddar cheese.

Cut carrots into finger thick and length shapes. Melt some butter and olive oil in a pan with some garlic juice. Have the heat medium so as not to burn the butter. Toss the carrots in the butter/oil so they warm through. We are only warming and semi-softening the carrots - they will be a little crunchy.

Just before serving, grind fresh pepper into the pan and a good quantity of honey and baby spinach leaves. Turn up the heat so the honey bubbles.

Immediately serve sprinkled with a mixture of Parmesan and Cheddar cheese.

Serve this as an entree or with some lightly grilled fish which you haven't dried out through overcooking - not that you would of course - (that's overcook the fish!)

I've mentioned before that, during the reign of King Charles the First (the bloke who lost his head), the ladies of his Court wore carrot tops in their head-dress because the English had put an embargo on imports from South Africa and so ostrich feathers weren't available for the ladies. But they did have to eat the carrots so they could get the tops. (One couldn't have the orange carrots poking into the wigs - so only the feathery tops were used.). Anyway, the vitamin A was good-o for the ladies' eyesight so they were able to see how ridiculous they looked.

Just a little more on carrots. They contain betacarotene, magnesium, potassium and phosphorus. They're a superb detoxifier and are excellent for the liver and digestion. They're rich in antioxidants and protect the body from certain cancers, aid night vision and are a good source of fibre.

Now what else to do with carrots - apart from the garlic and honey.

Steam them until soft, puree, add garlic and stir into mashed potato. Or grate with raw ginger, make a look-alike birds nest of the strings of carrot, pop a soft boiled egg into the nest (de-shelled of course), or grate a handful of carrot into a pan wet with a little butter and garlic juice, warm the carrot by tossing it with the melted butter, break two eggs into the pan with the carrots and mix as in scrambled eggs. Serve on a slice of wholemeal bread.

Or grate a carrot, add orange segments and sliced pineapple, warm in a pan with a little butter and garlic juice and kalamata olives. Serve warm topped with a dollop of natural Greek yoghurt mixed with hummus.

There are lots and lots of other combinations which will suit your palate and purse - and your health regime. Simply remember not to overcook the carrot (except if you're going to puree it.)

In the first two weeks of May RGC hosted three rounds of pennant. The two men's teams Handicap Div 3 and Scratch Div 2 hosted and did not play, the women's team, Handicap Div 3, played Avenel. All teams have performed well and the two handicap teams have a real chance of success. The last round will decide the make-up the finals. Thanks to Mick Squire, John Freestone/Rob Rea and Beryl Cole who have all captained their teams with great distinction.

Laurie, an RGC Life Member, was a wonderful man and much loved by the golfing community. Well, now he will see if "The Big Bloke" can really use a one-iron, no-one on Earth can!

The 2019 Club Championships began in the 1st week of May. Both men's and women's competitions are tightly contested with a number of players in with a chance of taking our Club Champion or B and C grade.

The course and Park in general, continues to green as we get more dews and rain. The smaller trees that members have watered through summer have survived well and should be much more self-sufficient by next summer. We are especially pleased with the success of the planting along the eastern boundary. These small native flowering bushes are intended to provide food and habitat for insects and smaller birds and mammals. It will be wonderful to see them flower across the whole year.

The Romsey Football Saga

By Peter Mitchell

During the years from 1925 – 1928, the Romsey Football teams were unbeatable. Their success helped to bring about their loss in 1929.

Mrs Percy Bowen, the wife of a Romsey star footballer made beef tea for the football side during the half time break. This practice gave a Sunbury man the opportunity to make some money.. During the 1929 grand final, this man put a lot of money on Sunbury to win. He then sneaked into the Romsey rooms before half time and put a laxative into the beef tea.

match and the Sunbury man went home with his pockets full.

A former star footballer in the 1920's Romsey football side, Doug Parks estimated that a goal he kicked on the Romsey oval would never be beaten. Kicking a place kick from full back with the aid of a very strong wind, the ball went over the players' heads and rolled and bounced its way through the goalposts at the other end.

The second half of the game became a disaster for the Romsey Football Team, as the players were running off the field to the toilet and were uncomfortable. Sunbury won the

PASTOR'S PARABLES

Hell - The Absence of God

The absence of water makes a desert. The absence of land makes an ocean. The absence of warmth makes the polar caps. The absence of light makes darkness. The absence of God's unconditional love & abundant provision makes Hell.

Hell, for want of a better word, is simply a place where God and all of His goodness is absent.

In life, God sustains us with oxygen, gravity, water, sunshine and all the universal laws of order - even when we make it quite clear that we want nothing to do with Him.

God must respect our decision to live apart from Him - His perfection demands it. On that day He may say to those who rejected salvation, 'It saddens Me that you have refused all My gracious offers of salvation and shown on all occasions that you want nothing to do with Me. I must respect your decision (free-will) and leave you in a place that has been set aside where My provision of healing, joy, love, kindness, goodness, mercy, forgiveness, patience and peace, shall be absent, where I will not sustain the environment or the universal laws of order, where My light will be nowhere to be seen and where you are beyond the reach of My comfort. It is a place where I shall respect your wish and remain absent from you for eternity.' (See 2 Thessalonians 1:9)

It is foolish to say we don't need God in our lives. Hell is the void created when God's providence is absent. It is a place of absolute darkness, chaos and everlasting discomfort. Let us not eternally regret being separated from God when Heaven is simply ours for the asking. The Bible clearly states: For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son (Jesus Christ), that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. (John 3:16). CHOOSE God for your LIFE - TODAY.

However, there will come a day (death) when

Pastor Marilyn Hunter

LEADERSHIP

Most of us have voted to choose who will lead our nation over the next few years. They have a heavy responsibility. What influenced your choice: ability, charisma, knowing their electorate, the party platform?

For Christians, the Bible gives us some guidelines as to the qualities needed in Leadership.

When Moses burdened with the responsibility of leading and ordering 2000 people was advised by his father-in-law to appoint assistants, "Select capable men from all the people, men who fear God, trustworthy men who hate dishonest gain." (Exodus 18:21). JESUS before choosing His 12 Leaders (Apostles) spent the night on a mountainside in prayer. (Luke 6:12). When the leaders of the infant Church in Jerusalem realized they needed help, they appointed assistants (deacons) who had to be wise - "Brothers, choose out from among you men of wisdom and who are known to be full of the Holy Spirit.." (Acts 5:3).

I wonder how many we voted for would pass these tests? I think most of us look for integrity, ability, wisdom in decision making, and remembering too they are only human and need our support.

St. Peter reminds of this in 1Peter 2:13ff,

"Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every authority instituted among men.."
All authority is in God's hands.

Some of the last words of Jesus before returning to the glory of heaven were: "All authority in heaven and earth is given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations...." (Matthew 28:18-19).

How were this small band of believers to do this? Only in the power of the Holy Spirit who would come to them on the Day of Pentecost (Whitsunday) to fill them with His power to make known the Gospel message. This happened ten days after the Ascension of Jesus to Heaven and which His Church will be celebrating this month on Sunday 9 June. The mission of the Spirit is to comfort - strengthen, fortify - to instruct and to change our sinful, fallen natures into the likeness of Christ.

Last month we were saddened and shocked by the sudden death of our much loved and respected member, Laurie Thomson. He and his late wife Jan served our Church and our Community all their lives. We will miss his humour, wisdom, faithfulness in all he committed himself to do. "Well done, good and faithful servant enter into the joy of your Lord."

The Trouble Tree

The carpenter I hired to help me restore an old farmhouse had just finished a rough first day on the job. A flat tyre made him lose an hour of work, his electric saw failed and his ancient truck refused to start. While I drove him home, he sat in stony silence. On arriving he invited me in to meet his family. As we walked toward the front door, he paused briefly at a small tree, touching the tips of the branches with both hands. Upon opening the door he underwent an amazing transformation. His tanned face was wreathed in smiles and he hugged his two small children and gave his wife a kiss.

Afterward he walked me to the car. We passed the tree and my curiosity got the better of me. I asked him about what I had seen him do earlier. "Oh, that's my trouble tree", he replied. "I know I can't help having troubles on the job, but one thing for sure, troubles don't belong in the house with my wife and children. So I just hang them up on the tree every night when I come home. Then in the morning I pick them up again. Funny thing is," he smiled, "when I come out in the morning, there aren't nearly as many as I remember hanging up the night before."
