Welcome to the March Edition

Well this month should see the completion of the road works on Melbourne-Lancefield Road. However there has been much talk about items being stolen from the contractors, equipment being damaged, cones being moved and people driving on and ripping up new areas of road waiting to be sealed. This may mean although frustrating, the workers are being hampered and works could take that bit longer to complete.

That aside this month see's the Relay For Life and it would be great to see as many people as possible getting involved and raising money for such a great cause. In this day and age too many people either have a family member or close friend affected by cancer. As a community let's do our bit to try and help raise valuable funds.

The committee would like to thank all those contributors that were able to submit their contributions by the early deadline. Next month is back to normal - 15th March.

Finally, please remember the previous email addressed was decommissioned in September 2018. Please ensure all correspondence is sent to the email address below:

Romsey Mechanics Institute Monthly Update

Works to illuminate the facade of the RMI should be completed by the time the March edition of the Romsey Rag is printed. These works will add to the overall appeal of Main Street. Our thanks to Janyce McMurtrie (MRSC) and DeAraugo & Lea electricians.

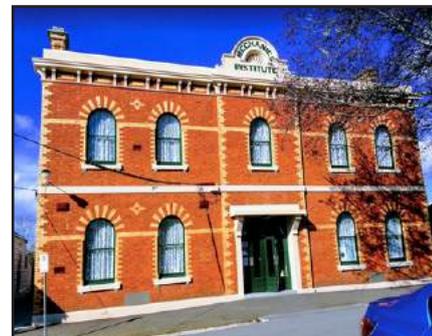

Our Community Markets, fundraising for the RMI, have paid for new floor heater vent covers. These black, cast iron covers are certainly strong enough to take a person's weight and look pretty good too. Thanks to the CoM members who removed the old covers and put the new ones in place.

In 2018 the RMI was successful in gaining a grant (MRSC - Places for People program) to allow us to have plans, with engineering specification, drawn up for a complete overhaul and expansion of the toilets. Having this project "shovel ready" will assist us to apply for grants to carry out the works.

Our 5th Annual Antiques Fair is coming up, Sat March 16th. The Fair is a joint fundraiser between the RNH and the RMI. Please come along and see what is on offer and/or enjoy a well priced and very appetising morning/afternoon tea as prepared by the Romsey CWA.

Our web site gives a good idea as to what we have to offer. Bookings and all inquiries can be made at; rmibookings@gmail.com, or via the web site. We are more than happy to discuss your function, show you through the hall or supper room and explain the hire process.

Visitor Economy Review Strategy

RRBATA was invited to be involved in the drafting by Council of this important document which provides a 10-year strategy framework for the very important visitor economy in the Macedon Ranges. The visitor economy is significant for every community and business either directly or indirectly. How best to capitalise the current assets to enhance visitation and thereby the visitor economy whilst at the same time not compromising amenity for the local community is key to Strategy's objective. This will be presented to Council for ratification soon.

Romsey CFA gets a capability boost thanks to the Bendigo Bank

With appreciation to the Lancefield and Romsey Bendigo Bank for a grant received in 2018, the Romsey CFA took possession of a new piece of fire fighting equipment that will greatly enhance our capability.

The ground monitor is a piece of equipment that allows a large volume of water to be quickly delivered to fires, and also helps reduce fire fighter fatigue for events where water is needed over a long period of time.

The ground monitor is ideally suited to structure fires, such as house and shed fires, of which the Romsey Brigade has responded to several over the past few years.

With the ground monitor now purchased, the Romsey CFA members have been busy training with the new equipment over the past month to ensure members can quickly set it up and direct the water where it is needed.

Little do they know what is in store for them. They are soon to discover the owner of Tranquillum may have other plans in mind!

Do we ever really know the people closest to us? When Sophia returns to her childhood home to find that both her parents have been attacked by an unknown intruder, she is shocked and deeply disturbed by the sequence of events leading to this tragedy. Sophia's mother is found hanging dead from a tree outside in the yard and her father is found brutally injured inside the house. The police are convinced that this is the scene of a murder-suicide and not an attack by an intruder and murderer. Sophia is absolutely certain that her parents would not have harmed themselves, but how does she know what really happened? As the story unfolds, Sophia discovers that her mother has kept a journal for years detailing her past. The secrets which lie within these journals reveal a person and a life Sophia is yet to discover.

Conductor Required for New Choir

Cobaw Community Health are looking for a conductor to lead a new community choir that they have been given funding to establish. The $10,000 grant has been awarded to Cobaw by Creativity Australia as part of their With One Voice choir program. The aim of the initiative is to promote social connectedness and inclusion, reduce isolation and improve the health and wellbeing of participants through the benefits of singing.

There are currently 15 With One Voice choirs across Australia with another 7 due to launch in 2019. Neuroscience studies demonstrate that singing makes people happier, healthier, smarter and more creative. With no auditions or singing experience required, Cobaw's With One Voice Central Victoria hopes that it can connect with a broad range of community members and bring them together in song.

With the organisation's strong links to the local community, Carly Visscher, Cobaw's Manager Community Connections, saw the potential opportunities and benefits to local people in the project. Nathan Lange from Creativity Australia said 'We were extremely impressed by the planning and research that went into Cobaw's proposal. They fully understood and aligned with the With One Voice ethos of inclusivity and using singing to bring communities together'.

Applications for the With One Voice Central Victoria Choir Conductor are now being considered and further details can be found on Cobaw's website and on its Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn pages. The Choir Conductor will work with the choir committee to establish, build and lead the choir. Applications are welcome from school music teachers, band leaders, professional or non-professional musicians. A passion for power of singing together as a group and the desire to nurture a diverse range of singing abilities are a must!

Animal Corner - Gum Disease

After a recent trip to the vets with my cat for her annual check up I discovered two teeth looked "rather ordinary"; in other words covered in plaque with red angry gums. After promptly booking in for a dental, the teeth were thoroughly cleaned however as one tooth was found to be fractured it was removed.

While I ensure I have dry biscuits specifically to help maintain clean teeth, clearly that wasn't enough. There was no nasty smelly breath to indicate any problems and my cat was eating as normal. Hence the importance of regular check-ups at your local vets. Adjacent are more facts highlighted by the Australian Veterinary Association.

There are dental kits that can be used to clean your pets teeth and other products to help prevent gum disease. If you are concerned about your pet or want some more advice please be sure to contact your local vet who will be more than happy to help.

Veterinarian's guide to gum disease in dogs and cats

Facts about gum disease:

According to the Australian and American Veterinary Dental Societies, more than 80% of dogs and 70% of cats develop gum disease by the age of three.

Periodontal disease in pets can often go undetected for years, despite the fact it causes pain and discomfort.

Annual dental check-ups and ongoing dental care can prevent some of the serious side effects of gum disease.

Periodontal disease is the most common disease seen in dogs and cats. It's more common than any other disease including those of the skin, eyes, ears or heart.

Gum disease can lead to infections in the kidney, heart and liver, and even fractured jaws.

Common signs of gum disease include bad breath, inflamed gums, broken teeth and in some cases a reluctance to eat.

Plaque and tartar contain a multitude of bacteria and toxins that can spread to other parts of the body.

The Contingent Horse

By M. Burkinshaw

They took me from the watercourse,
That goes through Simpson's run;
They stabled me and rubbed me down
As they had never done.
They took me from the quiet bush,
The paddocks where I fed;
And over dusty bridle-tracks,
Unwilling, I was led.

They brought me to the iron rails,
And put me on the train,
And trucked me in a wooden cage,
Across the saltbush plain.
They tied my heel and tied my head,
Whatever was the need?
They fired a rifle at my ear,
When they fetched up the feed.

They rode me down a hard-wide road,
That people call a street,
Ah! How I longed for Simpson's run,
And grass about my feet.
They walked me where the flags flew high,
From off a thousand roofs
Where people haven't any sense
Concerning horses' hoofs.

My master - someone new and strange-
Would smile and smile again,
When ladies said, "Give me a piece
Of that sweet horse's mane".
But all the while I yearned to see,
The swamp below the rise,
Where the rock lilies bud and bloom,
To gladden horses' eyes.

The wattle up on Simpson's run,
Was finer than their flags,
The grasses more pleasing to the taste,
Of true Australian nags.
They took me off to Pinkenba,
And shoved me down a lane,
On to a thing they called a ship,
That groaned and rolled again.

And now I spend such dreary days,
Afloat on a lagoon;
By morning, and by eventide,
And in the drowsy noon,
On every side the water lies,
My master comes to me,
And reads a letter many times,
His head upon my knee.

Sometimes I think that he too feels,
That this is scarcely fun,
And would be glad to go with me
Far back to Simpson's run.

Although the author is listed as M. Burkinshaw, this was one of many nom de plumes or literary pseudonyms used by Mabel Forrest (1872-1935). Its actually her former married name. She was known as "the most industrious versifier in the Commonwealth".

Thanks to Tom O'Brien for sending in this months poem.

Fitting and connecting our 2nd pump was a tricky business with very little room for errors of just a few mm but all went well, and both pumps are now working. Our thanks to Les Gaunt and Ron Walker for all their planning and attention to detail. A full report on our irrigation project can be found on the RGC website at: <http://www.romseygolfclub.net/recycled-water-works/>. In coming years, now that we are able to get more water out onto the course, we should have a greener and cooler golf course and Romsey Park.

Over the last few years our membership has steadily increased to the point where we are now able to put forward two pennant teams, one will be a Division 3 Handicap team while the other will be a Division 2 Stroke team. Good luck to all who represent the club during the 2019 Pennant Golf season.

Well, the Long-Billed Corellas have been at the park during this summer and have done some damage to a few of the greens but nowhere as bad as over the past 5-6 years. No-one can pinpoint exactly why this is so but over time we have learnt not to fill in the holes as the birds just dig them out again. We have also hung a number of reflective items above and around greens. Also, the birds eat the Onion Grass bulbs, it may be that after 5-6 years of harvesting these bulbs there is now not enough food to support the once large (800+) flock of birds we have had in past. Probably a bit of all three.

Our "11th Relay For Life" Charity Golf Day was held on Sunday Feb 10th. 18 teams took to the course raising just over $2,300 for cancer research. The day's winners were Ebony's Boys 2nd JB's Bandits and Best Team Uniform The Ninjas.

Origins of Romsey District Names

By Peter Mitchell

It may be of interest to some to learn the source of some of the names of the Romsey District.

Clarkefield, Monegetta and Bolinda were all part of the Clarke family run of 137,370 acres, which extended from Fenton Hill to Romsey. The land was purchased by "Big Clarke" and run by his son Sir William Clarke and the property was named Bolinda Vale. Sir Rupert, of the next generation, subdivided and sold off much of Bolinda Vale between 1905 and 1909 and leased the remaining 5,000 acres

Bolinda Vale – Bullanda was an aboriginal name for "old man" which was later anglicised to Bolinda by the early settlers.

Monegetta – the name Monegetta was derived from the Moonee Jetty run. This 12,800 acre run was owned by Melbourne founding father John Pascoe Fawkner.

Romsey – This name is derived from a town in Somerset in England.

Springfield – The Springfield district was named by the original James Tom, after their farming property near Orange in NSW where the Tom family were early settlers.

Rochford – The Rochford district takes its name from the locality near the mouth of the Thames River in Essex, England although it is uncertain who gave the district its name.

We also don't know the origin of the mysterious convict leg irons found buried in the Rochford soil in the early days of settlement.

Lancefield – The first settlers in Lancefield were Fulton and Jardine who arrived in 1838 and were later joined by their manager Patrick Main. All came from Glasgow, Scotland, the home of the Lancefield shipyards.

Pastor's Parables

Don't allow the truth to be brought into disrepute

A tourist heard of a special place known as, 'Heavenly-Salvation' where everlasting accommodation was said to be free. She eagerly grabbed her pack and headed off to see if the claims were true. As she approached, a wild looking man who lived on the outskirts ran up to her laughing madly and speaking gibberish. He welcomed her to Heavenly-Salvation and told her that if she wished to enter she would have to be his servant and give him all her money. In disgust, the tourist thought, 'These Christians are insane - I want nothing to do with them or their so-called free village.' She quickly turned around and decided never to return.

Meanwhile, the citizens of Heavenly-Salvation scratched their heads in frustration. They could not understand why so few tourists visited their lovely village - they were completely unaware that the village idiot was scaring them all away. Salvation is a free gift - there is no cost. God paid the account on the cross through Jesus Christ. However, it can be very hard for the 'Unbelieving-World' to see the truth of Christianity through the forest of village idiots. The world is filled with cults and crazy religions all claiming to be doing God's will, but their obvious greed and weird practices are bringing the Truth into disrepute. Sadly, these way-out teachings are the most vocal and the 'Unbelieving-World' judges all Christianity by the village idiots.

Any person wishing for eternal salvation should ignore the village idiots and freely enter. The bible says, 'For grace you have been saved through faith (believing in Christ) that not of yourselves; it is a gift of God not of works lest anyone should boast, (Ephesians 2:8-9).'

What is Pancake Day?

In the Christian tradition, Pancake Day, also called Pancake Tuesday, Shrove Tuesday, is the last day of feasting before Lent begins on the following day, Ash Wednesday. It is called so due to the custom of eating pancakes on this day, a tradition that comes from a time when any remaining rich foods were eaten on the day before Lent to use them up and fasting begins. It is observed mainly in English-speaking countries, especially Ireland, the United Kingdom, Australia, New Zealand, Canada and the United States, but also in the Philippines and Germany. Pancake Day is a moveable feast whose date is determined by Easter, and it's celebrated exactly 47 days before Easter Sunday. The date can vary from as early as February 3rd to as late as March 9th.

FORTY DAYS

Lent is approaching and we think of JESUS and His forty days of fasting in the desert wilderness, alone, except for the company of wild animals and birds and SATAN. For centuries the Church has encouraged Christians to follow HIS example of fasting, prayer and self-discipline in the forty days leading to Good Friday. Sundays are excepted because they are feast days celebrating His Resurrection. There is so much to ponder and learn from this desert experience of our Lord's so we are limited to a few thoughts. It is important for us to think about it, as it was for us He was obedient to be "led by the Spirit into the wilderness". (Matthew 4:1-11). There Jesus was confronted by Satan to deviate from the path of suffering God had planned for mankind's deliverance from sin. The first man - Adam - was tempted in the garden and failed; the Second Man - Jesus - was tempted in the wilderness and overcame. Jesus prevailed through the power of the indwelling Holy Spirit and so can we from the temptations that come our way - "The world, the flesh and the Devil". It is up to each of us to decide how we spend our forty days - whether by fasting, giving up a pastime or treat, to spend more time in prayer, earnest study of His Word (The Bible) or devotional reading. The need is to follow the example of Jesus in spending time alone with God, getting to know Him more intimately and His plan for our lives.

"Forty days and forty nights, You fasted in the wild;

Forty days and forty nights, Tempted, and yet undefiled.

Shall not we your sorrows share, And from earthly joys abstain,

Fasting with unceasing prayer, Glad with You to suffer pain."

G H Smyttan & F Pott

Romsey Men's Shed

The committee of The Romsey Men's Shed has been busy, negotiating with Macedon Ranges Shire Council and other bodies to secure a site where a shed can be built.

This may take some time according to the committee president, Steve Goodman. "In the interim", he says, "we need somewhere to meet". A men's Shed is somewhere where men of all ages can gather to talk. What activities are undertaken in the shed will be determined by the interests, skills and need of its members. Men's Sheds in neighbouring towns provide a supportive environment for their members.

This is one of the most beneficial aspects of Men's Shed membership.

The committee believes there must be a vacant building or a shed in the Romsey area that could provide temporary accommodation for its members one day a week.

Anyone with information or a suitable building is asked to call the Secretary, Pat Holt: by email Romseymys@gmail.com or phone 0407 209 899.

Sunday February 10th – 4 player Ambrose – Relay For Life Charity Golf Day

Sixteen teams teed up at Romsey Golf Course to help raise money for Puddles' Team and the 2019 Lancefield/Macedon Ranges Relay For Life. More than a few teams dressed up hoping to win the "Best Team Uniform" award while others were just out for an enjoyable morning's golf and a great meal back in the clubrooms. There was some serious competition between a few teams, especially JB' Bandits who had come a very close 2nd in 2018. The wind began from the NW then moved to the SW and proceeded to swing back and forth for the whole morning. Just about everyone could hear the theme from "Gilligan's Island" courtesy of the team "3Hr Tour" while every now and then wild shouts of elation erupted as a birdie or eagle putt dropped. All teams were back in the rooms just before 1.00 pm and enjoying the wonderful lunch prepared by the members of a "Puddles' Team".

An auction of tools was held just before presentations then the major sponsors, "Romsey hardware" were thanked along with Blackwoods, The Romsey Bottle-O, Pantry on Main, Burnbrook Fields and BSC Industrial who had all supported the event. The day saw ~$2,300.00 raised for Cancer Research.
